BRIEF HISTORY	Born in Bathgate, Scotland, in 1946 Permanent Resident status in South Africa since 1976 Lived in Northcliff/Randburg area, Johannesburg, until retired to Knysna
CAREER	Served 5 years in the Royal Air Force in UK, Germany and Libya Following military service I trained and specialized in pension fund administration, management and consultancy first with a major Scottish insurance company and then with a national brokerage firm. In 1976 I accepted an offer from a leading Johannesburg insurance company and emigrated in June of that year. I worked for several companies within the pension fund industry until 2009 when I left the corporate world. I set up a home-based share trading platform in 2009 and traded shares and derivatives on local and global markets, full-time, until Wendy and I moved to the estate in 2016. I still enjoy trading but only on an opportunistic basis.
HOBBIES / INTERESTS	More accurately passionate about writing, English literature, poetry, and also enjoy military history. In the early 90's I had several short stories published locally, and served a period as Managing Editor of the South African Writers' Association, producing a monthly magazine for national circulation. I enjoy running but am currently out of action owing to a tendon issue.
KLE HISTORY	Became a Member of KLE HOA in 2015 as joint owner of Unit 79. Joined our First Responder team when it was formed by Mike Griffiths after the Knysna fires, and, for the last 2 years, I have had the privilege of serving as team leader of our 15 member squad.
TRUSTEE BACKGROUND	Trustee of a sectional title development in Johannesburg from 1983 to 2000
